LESSONS

Biblical principles and practical ideas that open doors to more meaningful conversations.

In the lessons section there are some good topics to sit down and review to prepare yourself to be more effective in sharing your faith.

Here are some of the topics:

- Five reasons to be courageous in having a conversation about Jesus.
- How the Holy Spirit helps you to overcome fear with faith.
- How to demonstrate the gospel in your life.
- How to love people by listening.
- ... and several more...

WRAP UP

1. Take a moment to think about someone you'd like to talk with about Jesus.
 - a. Write down a few things you can pray for that person.
 - b. Write down a few fears you have about having a spiritual conversation with the person.
 - c. Pray for the things you wrote down, asking God to help you.
2. Write down a couple of action points that you can apply from the lessons.

3. Decide on one faith step you can take to start a spiritual conversation this week. Write it down and ask God to open an opportunity.
